Brussels, 16th December 2008.

Dear Madam,
Dear Sir,

The Automotive Suppliers Section of FEBIAC organizes its annual seminar on the occasion of the official opening of the European Motor Show Brussels, Friday 16 January 2008. In the morning session we welcome keynote speaker Mr. Patrick Collignon, Managing Director VOLVO Trucks (see separate invitation).

The FEBIAC Automotive Suppliers Section kindly invites you for the subsequent business lunch at 12h30.

The Boston Consulting Group Automotive Practice Leader, Mr. Georg Sticher will talk about ongoing developments in the field of electrical vehicles and the impact for automotive industry. He will share BCG's vision on the technology, consumer acceptance and business case:

Will the electrical car be the saviour of automotive industry?

Georg Sticher is a Senior Partner and Managing Director of The Boston Consulting Group and the head of BCG's global automotive practice. Georg joined BCG in 1990 with an MBA from Insead, he is based in Munich.

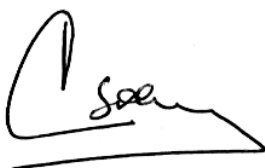

The proposed program connects with the morning session as follows:

- 12h30 Venue, Hall 11 1st floor
Welcome + drink
- 13h00 Business lunch with 20' introductory speech of Mr. Georg Sticher - BCG
- 14h15 End of lunch
Networking or free visit of the motor show
- 16h00 Inauguration & VIP – Tour (Hall 5, main entrance)
- 18h30 Cocktail in the foyer of Auditorium 2000

- 18h30-24h00 Free visit of the motor show (for press and limited number of visitors)

We are looking forward to meeting you on January 16.

With kind regards,

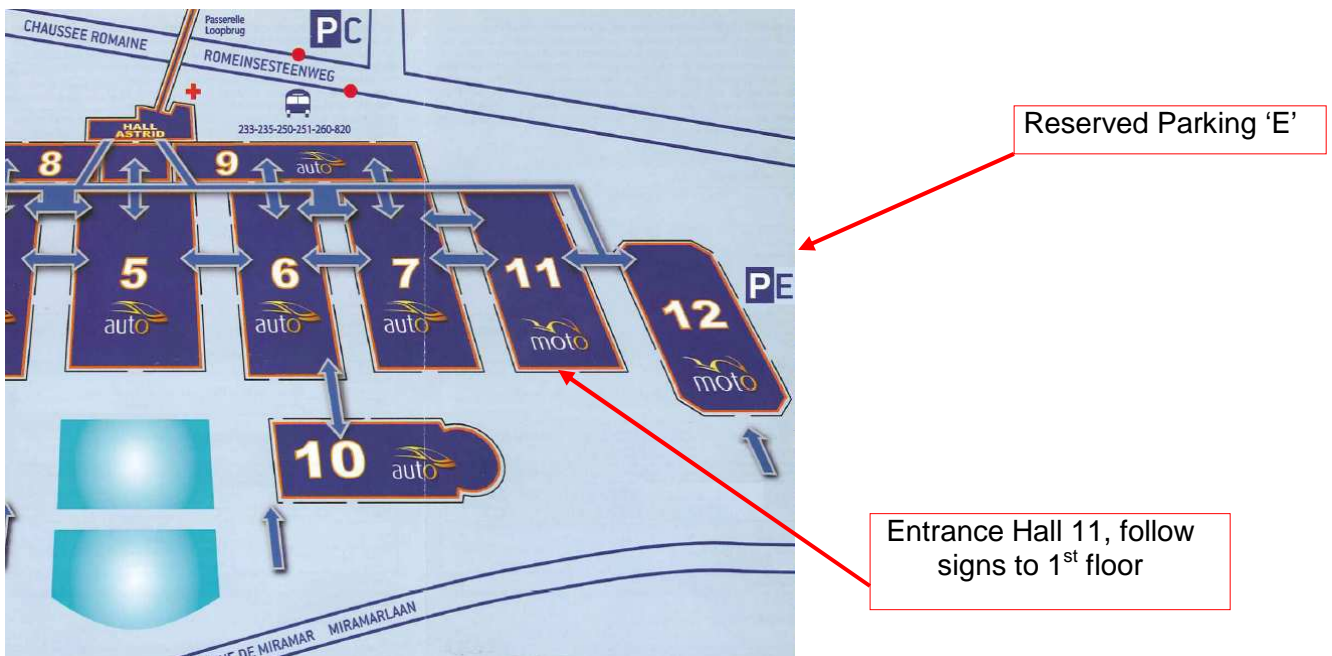

Ir. Steven Soens
Advisor
